I am mindful of the very legitimate management concerns of the Director of Training and Education relative to the security status of instructors at the Language School. From a security perspective, however, I feel compelled to respond negatively to the request for Staff-type blue badges.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training and Education

VIA: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM:

[redacted]
Director of Security

SUBJECT: "Blue" Badges for Language School Instructors

[redacted] 25X1

[redacted]

25X1

1. Reference is made to your memorandum of 24 January 1983, which requested blue Staff type badges for five language instructors because of perceived morale concerns, and a possible impairment in the flexibility of the Language School. [redacted]

25X1

2. There is a commonalty between these five cases which cannot be ignored. In each of them, close foreign relatives reside in or are citizens of hostile countries; in one case the instructor has not been a citizen for the required five years; and exceptions for [redacted] will be needed. [redacted]

25X1

3. This is to advise that these five cases have once again been scrupulously reviewed in an honest effort to be helpful to you. I regret to advise that I cannot in good conscience go with a security policy waiver for individuals who do not meet Agency staff standards. [redacted]

25X1

4. The fundamental issue runs much deeper than the color of the badge, and the focus of attention has to be on the stringent personnel security requirements of an intelligence organization. I should point out that through the years the Office of Security has addressed the same basic question in relation to Contract Externals for the Directorate of Operations, which has pressed the standard argument that staff access will improve both morale and efficiency. To support a waiver on these five cases would establish a most unfortunate precedent, and it would otherwise send forth all the wrong signals at a time when we are making an overall effort to strengthen our personnel security posture. The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence has taken the same tact on alien marriage cases. [redacted]

5. I recognize and accept your position that these five language instructors are valuable Agency assets, and that current security restrictions make it inconvenient for the Language School. Most certainly no question has been raised concerning their professionalism. [redacted]

6. It is my understanding that in the case of [redacted] [redacted] he has in the past had access under escort to [redacted] Building. I would interpose no objection to such a controlled arrangement in the future and would have an open mind in considering similar individual requests for the other four instructors [redacted]

7. In simplest terms, the blue staff badge must go the badge-holder who qualifies for a staff-type clearance with its attendant staff-like access privileges. None of the five individuals in the instant request qualifies for such a clearance, such access or such a badge. All this despite their being fine and commendable employees. [redacted]
